The Consumer benefits from certain warranties and conditions implied by Federal and State legislation. By law these benefits cannot be withheld. This warranty offers the following benefits to consumers in addition to, and without restricting in any way, the benefits conferred by law.

This warranty is for a period of twelve months from date of installation of the HyChill Refrigerant and is limited to remediation of faults or defects in your system directly attributable to the HyChill Refrigerant, but does not cover faults or defects arising from any other cause, including fair wear and tear. This warranty shall be read in conjunction with consumer rights at law; consequential losses are expressly excluded.
